

IHBC Scotland Branch Training Day and AGM

Stirling, Friday 5 December

Programme: delivering 4 hours of CPD

11.00 Cowane's Hospital, 49 St John St, Stirling, FK8 1ED (4 on map, near Church of the Holy Rude. Allow time to walk up into the Old Town)

Founded 1637-1643, later known as the Guild Hall. Tour offered of the whole building including areas not available to the public, together with an explanation of the proposed works for which funding applications are in the pipeline.

12.00 Presentation by Stirling City Heritage Trust on the Traditional Buildings Health Check

12.30 Lunch provided in Cowane's Hospital, Stirling, Then a guided walk through the Old Town and projects by Stirling City Heritage Trust, King Street, including shopfronts and onto:

14.00 Forthside: view Engine Shed interior (2 on map) <http://conservation.historic-scotland.gov.uk/home/engineshed.htm> (Toast coffee shop is suggested as an earlier rendezvous for those not coming from Cowane's Hospital. Buy your own)

14.30 On foot via further project by Stirling City Heritage Trust: War Memorial, Albert Place.

15.15 arrive at Stirling Smith Art Gallery and Museum. (3 on map) Tea and baked goods included. <http://www.smithartgalleryandmuseum.co.uk/home/getting-here>

15.30 Colin Tennant, Historic Scotland, explains the audience development for Scotland's Building Conservation Centre to be developed at the Engine Shed. Short discussion.

16.00 IHBC Scotland Branch AGM

17.00 end of meeting.

It is possible to join this event at various points during the day, but please let us know when you intend to do so by booking with your IHBC membership number if a member (and if we get a big uptake we could add some more food).

Bookings to adminsecretaryscotland@ihbc.org.uk by 1 December

FREE to IHBC members and affiliates, utilising some proceeds from the 2014 Annual School.

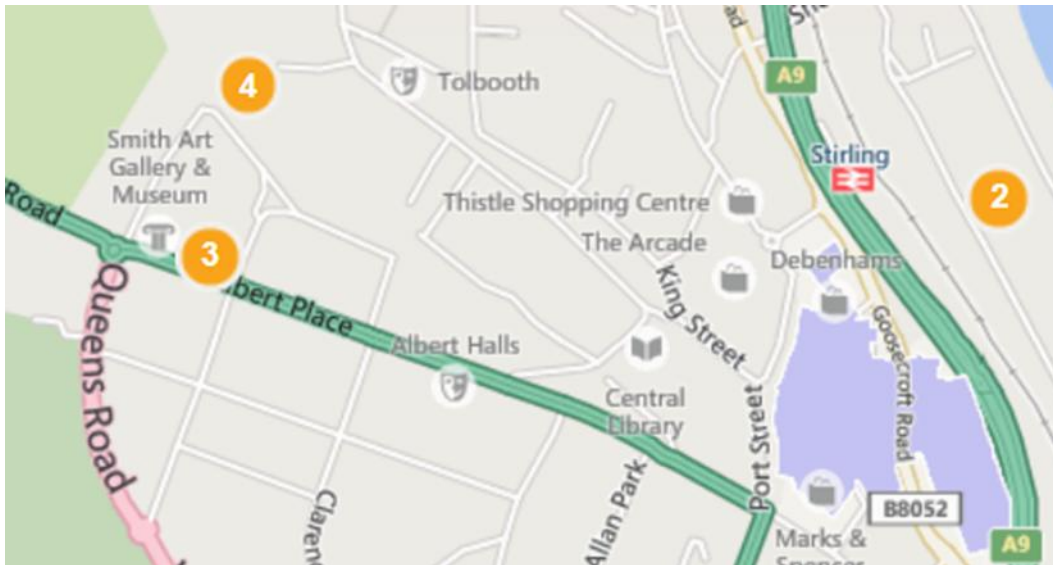

£20 to non-members, payable on the day, for food and admissions.

Transport. We suggest use of train, bus or park and ride, or to park in a public car park rather than to attempt to drive in the Old Town.

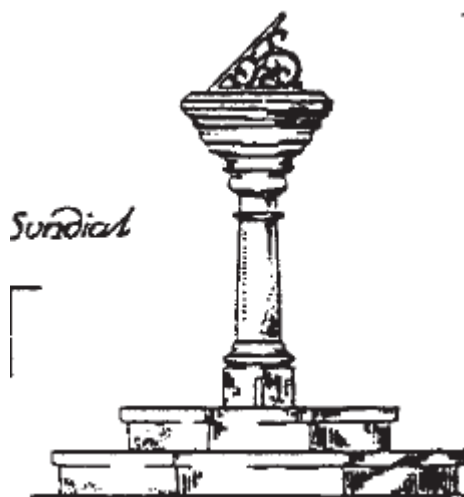

<http://www.scotrail.co.uk/>

<http://my.stirling.gov.uk/services/transport-and-streets/environment-friendly-transport/park-and-ride-schemes?theme=MyStirling>

<http://my.stirling.gov.uk/services/transport-and-streets/parking-and-car-parks>

Bing Mapping

Sundial at Cowane's Hospital, a listed building and new entry in the designed landscape inventory, drawn in 1903.