

· INSTITUTE · OF · HISTORIC ·
BUILDING · CONSERVATION

SOUTH BRANCH

Naval Gazing

Portsmouth Historic Dockyards May 18th 2018

An IHBC South Branch conference exploring how some of the nation's most precious naval assets are cared for as well as the docks and buildings which house them and their related heritage

Itinerary is set out on the next page

· INSTITUTE · OF · HISTORIC ·
BUILDING · CONSERVATION

SOUTH BRANCH

Itinerary for Naval Gazing Day at Portsmouth Historic Dockyards.
Venue - Mary Rose Stavros
Niarchos Foundation Learning Centre located in the Mary Rose Museum
May 18th 2018

10-00am	Coffee and Registration
10-30am	Introduction	Jonathan Clarke	Chairman IHBC South Branch
10-35am	Welcome by the Mary Rose
10-40am	The Development of the Portsmouth Dockyard	Gareth Evans	Director Constructex
11-05am	Tangible and intangible heritage of dockyards and their communities	Dr Ann Coats	Senior Lecturer Portsmouth University
11-40am	Conserving the Dry Docks for HMS Victory & HMS M33	Giles Pritchard	Conservation Architect
12-15pm	Guests to depart for Boathouse 4 for a buffet lunch
12-30pm	A buffet lunch served in Boathouse 4 Restaurant which has stunning views across the waterfront and the historic boatbuilding works
1-30pm	Group to tour BH4 with members of the team who can talk about the building and the project itself
2-30pm	Return to Mary Rose
2-45pm	Afternoon refreshments served at the Mary Rose
3-00pm	Presentation on the Mary Rose conservation and building.	Dr Eleanor Scofield	Head of Conservation and Collection Care
3-45pm	Conference to Close
4-00pm	Guests have the availability to tour the Mary Rose Exhibition

For details of how to get there, travel and parking see

<http://www.historicdockyard.co.uk/site-attractions/plan-your-visit/getting-here>