

50 years of Conservation Areas

Museum of Nottingham Life, Brewhouse Yard Thursday 11th May 2017

The East Midlands IHBC branch will be joining in with celebrations for the 50th anniversary of the Civic Amenities Act 1967 this year, starting with a CPD event focussing on the latest conservation area management work in Nottingham.

Programme for the visit is as follows:

- 12.00: Arrival at Brewhouse Yard, Castle Boulevard, Nottingham
- 12.15: Branch meeting
- 13.30: Buffet lunch
- 14.15: Introduction to Nottingham Heritage Strategy and Conservation Area work presentation with Q&A discussion - led by Alice Ullathorne and Tom Street
- 15.15: Walking tour around current Conservation Area project areas - City Centre and Carrington Street
- 16.00: Event Finish

Following the event there will be the opportunity for networking on a planned pub crawl of a number of Nottingham's historic pubs.

How to reserve your place

There is no cost to attend the Branch Meeting, lunch or afternoon CPD event, although if you book and do not attend without good reason the Branch will have to invoice you for £10 to cover the costs. If you have any special dietary requirements can you let us know when you book.

To book please use our online registration form.

Places are limited so all bookings must be made by Tuesday 9th May.

Directions to the Museum of Nottingham Life

The Brewhouse Yard is about a 20 minute walk from Nottingham train station. If coming by car, the postcode is NG7 1FB but parking on site is limited to visitors with disabilities and must be pre-booked.

Future plans to celebrate the 50 Years of Conservation Areas in the East Midlands

In addition to this initial event, the IHBC East Midlands Branch is also planning a larger partnership event in Stamford later this year to celebrate conservation area management and practice in the East Midlands. It is our intent that through this programme of events the Branch can help Conservation Officers and Practitioners raise the profile of conservation areas across the East Midlands.

Further information on that will be sent out nearer the time. We hope you can join us.

Please remember you are welcome to attend any branch meetings, and the AGM, during the year and can contact us at any time if you are thinking about becoming an affiliate, associate or full member. Additionally, if you would be interested in a social meet up with IHBC colleagues in your area for a general chat and network please let us know. Happy conserving, and see you soon!
