

RETROFITTING THE BUILT HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT TO IMPROVE ENVIRONMENTAL PERFORMANCE - the Westminster experience

In February 2013, the City of Westminster, English Heritage and the Soho Community Environment Fund produced 'Improving Historic Soho's Environmental Performance – practical retrofitting guidance'. The aim of this topical document is to improve the retrofitting of buildings to improve their environmental performance whilst highlighting the need to preserve their heritage value.

Dr Nigel Barker, Planning and Conservation Director, English Heritage London Region, will talk about the project and its relevance to the wider built historic environment in the South East.

Date/Time: 7pm for 7.15 start, Thursday 23rd May, 2013.
